

International Playwriting Festival 2013

Please note: to ensure impartiality, plays must be submitted using a pseudonym, and the author's real name must be removed from all pages of the script

HOW TO ENTER

i) Complete the entry form ensuring PART A is stapled to your script and PART B is placed in a sealed envelope as stated. Please also enclose a 200 word synopsis. The envelope will only be opened when the judging is complete.

ii) Enclose one small envelope, which should be stamped* and addressed (using your pseudonym) and on which should be written the title of the play. It will be used to acknowledge receipt of your entry.

Please make sure sufficient postage (or validated coupons for international entries) is included.*

iii) Scripts will not be retained after the judging.

Send entries to:

Festival Administrator
International Playwriting Festival
87 Great Titchfield Street
London W1W 6RL UK
*Plays will not be accepted
after 31 July 2012*

RULES

- 1 The IPF is open to any author regardless of nationality, but all plays should be in English.
- 2 Plays must be full length and previously unproduced, estimated playing time, not less than 90 minutes and not more than 120 minutes. (Just over a minute a page is a rough guide, when scripts are typed as per rule 3 below.)
- 3 Scripts must be clearly typed on bond paper, double-spaced with wide margins, pages must be numbered and the text securely bound. Plays must be submitted using a pseudonym to ensure impartiality and the author's real name removed from all pages of the script. Whilst all reasonable care will be taken, the IPF does not accept responsibility for loss of, or damage to, submitted scripts.
- 4 Authors must guarantee that they have sole rights to all matter contained within the play. Any play accepted for production elsewhere before the judges' decision is announced will be disqualified.
- 5 The International Playwriting Festival reserves the right to buy the exclusive option to produce any play entered subject to contract.
- 6 Authors of the short-listed entries should make all reasonable efforts to attend a Press Reception and to be available to attend rehearsals and readings as required prior to the Festival weekend in March 2013.
- 7 The judges' decision is final and no correspondence concerning the results can be entered into.

IPF 2013 ENTRY FORM

Please complete in black ink or typescript using block capitals

PART A

Which must be stapled to the script

Title of play

Pseudonym of Author

PART B

Which must be placed in a sealed envelope marked only with the title of the play. (Please also include a 200 word synopsis of the play and a 100 word biography).

Title of play

Real Name of Author

Address

Postcode

Tel No (Day)(Eve).....

FaxE-mail.....

I confirm that I have read and agree to abide by the rules of the International Playwriting Festival

Signature.....Date..... 2012